Travel Peru
3 Days/2 Nights

This package could be done with private guide and car or it could be done Seat-in-coach

DAY 1 - LIMA / ICA

Transfer from hotel to the bus station in Lima for motor coach service to Ica, the wine and "Pisco" (Grape brandy) capital of Peru. If you're looking for a combination of sun, fun and culture let's take a drive along Peru's southern coast where the mysterious Nazca lines and the Paracas Wildlife Reserve are tucked among Ica's lush vineyards, refurbished haciendas and top resort hotels. Ica is nestled on the desert coast yet here you will find little valleys which are fertile with mild weather and perfect conditions to harvest the grapes. Upon arrival in Ica transfer to local hotel for overnight in the area.

DAY 2 - ICA / PARACAS / NAZCA

Drive to the Paracas Wildlife Preserve for a boat ride to the Ballestas Islands. The islands have an abundance of marine fauna -birds, fish and sea mammals are found in the Reserve attracting visitors and ecologists who are amazed by the profusion of sea life. Peculiar rocky formation and geological strata have made this area an object of many studies of origin of the Planet and can be compared with the Galapagos of Ecuador. This area is called the lungs of the Pacific Ocean because of its very high oxygenation due to the fact that two currents converge here and breed a superabundance of plankton and phytoplankton -primary bases of the oceanic food chain. Come with us and see a multitude of sea-lions, penguins and many types of birds.

In the afternoon a 45 minute flight seeing over the great mysterious Nazca Lines. Try and answer the many puzzles of the Nazca plains as you will see for yourself the great many figures in the desert floor, imagine if you will how and why of this geoglyphics from the animal kingdom as well as the geometric formations. Today we overnight at Paracas in local hotel
